

The Kedron Singers

Interim Newsletter – September 2009

Scottish Charity Number SC005857

Hello friends and members of the Kedron,

Welcome to a new session!! Time has certainly flown since we stopped for the summer break, but I think everyone will agree that it's good to be back.

During the summer we lost a very good and committed friend – Tom McCulla. It was at a very fitting service that we sang for tom his own composition "Gentle Rain of God". I am sure that we did him proud. As the year goes on we will organise through the Committee a suitable memorial. John Week's has composed a version of the 23rd Psalm in Braid Scots as a musical tribute to Tom. It will get its first "airing" in November. There is a tribute to Tom on our Website – click here to access.

I hope that this session continues the way it has started, in that we have had a plethora of engagements in comparison to last year. Where last year was a drought this year appears to be a bumper crop! Let's pray for continued support and encouragement for the Kedron, pray that we will continue to send out the Good News and that in doing so we can touch people with the "Gentle Rain of God".

Blessings, Alan
